LARRY GENET NAMED “ROOKIE OF THE YEAR” AT NAIOP SOUTH FLORIDA AWARDS OF EXCELLENCE

Fort Lauderdale, FL – March 19, 2015 – CBRE Senior Associate Larry Genet was named “Rookie of the Year” at the 2015 NAIOP South Florida Awards of Excellence ceremony, held in Fort Lauderdale on March 12, 2015. NAIOP South Florida is the premier commercial real estate development organization in the South Florida area.

Mr. Genet was recognized for his transaction volume, expertise in repositioning properties, and ability to marry traditional marketing with digital and new media. Since joining CBRE in 2011, he has been involved in approximately 200 transactions and represents over a dozen institutional landlords in Miami-Dade and Broward counties for listings in excess of 4.5 million square feet.

“Larry has established an impressive track record and reputation for someone so early in his career,” said Jules Morgan, Director, NAIOP South Florida. “His strong work ethic, collaborative attitude and resourcefulness have earned him the respect of clients and peers. He has wisely taken advantage of all that NAIOP South Florida has to offer its members – he actually met his future CBRE partners at a NAIOP event.”

“Larry is a rising star at CBRE and an integral member of CBRE’s Industrial Brokerage team in South Florida,” added Ken Krasnow, Managing Director, CBRE South Florida. “We are proud to see his accomplishments recognized by our industry peers.”

CBRE was a finalist for 10 awards at this year’s NAIOP South Florida Awards of Excellence:
