

TORONTO'S HOTTEST STREET

Ossington

SUMMER 2025 RETAIL UPDATE

CBRE urban retail team

OSSINGTON AVENUE

Ossington Avenue has firmly cemented its reputation as Toronto's hottest street and a top destination for dining, drinking, and shopping. Its dynamic energy have made it a magnet for both locals and tourists, drawn by its unique mix of curated retail, cuisine and culture.

Ossington's commercial real estate market has been on fire, with a wave of new retailers and restaurants opening their doors in recent months. Local hot spots such as Uncle Studios, Andrea's Cookies and Linny's Luncheonette, as well as top global brands such as Carhartt WIP and CHICHA San Chen have recently made Ossington their home. This surge in activity has solidified Ossington as one of the city's most sought-after corridors for businesses looking to align with a cool, urban crowd.
